

WEBSITE PRIVACY POLICY

Effective Date: September 30, 2026

XLNT EHR, Inc. ("XLNT EHR," "we," "us," or "our") respects your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, disclose, and protect information when you visit xlntehr.com, communicate with us, request information, or schedule an XLNT EHR Executive Briefing.

IMPORTANT: The public XLNT EHR website is not intended for submission of protected health information (PHI) or patient-identifiable information.

1. Information We Collect

Information you provide to us may include your name, email address, telephone number, hospital or organization, title or role, messages or inquiries, appointment information, and other information you choose to provide through our website, contact forms, booking tools, email, or other communications.

When you use the website, we and our service providers may automatically receive limited technical and usage information, such as IP address, browser type, device information, operating system, referring pages, pages viewed, dates and times of visits, and similar information used to operate, secure, and improve the website.

The website may use cookies and similar technologies for essential site functions, security, preferences, analytics, and performance. Available cookie or consent controls may vary by jurisdiction and by the services enabled on the site.

2. Do Not Submit Protected Health Information

Do not submit protected health information (PHI), patient-identifiable information, medical records, clinical information, or other sensitive patient data through this public website, the Executive Briefing booking form, general email, or other public website communication channels.

Use of this public website does not establish a HIPAA business associate relationship between XLNT EHR and any visitor or organization. Any future handling of PHI in connection with an XLNT EHR product or customer implementation will be governed by separate agreements, security requirements, and, where applicable, a Business Associate Agreement.

3. How We Use Information

- Respond to inquiries and provide requested information or materials.
- Schedule and conduct Executive Briefings and other meetings.
- Communicate with hospitals, healthcare professionals, prospective design or pilot partners, vendors, investors, and other interested parties.
- Operate, maintain, secure, troubleshoot, and improve the website and related business processes.
- Understand website usage and evaluate interest in XLNT EHR products and services.
- Prevent fraud, misuse, unauthorized access, or other security threats.
- Comply with applicable legal, regulatory, accounting, and recordkeeping obligations.

We do not use information submitted through the public website for patient diagnosis, treatment, clinical decision-making, or direct patient-care purposes.

4. Service Providers and Third-Party Platforms

We may use third-party service providers to operate portions of our website and communications infrastructure. These may include Wix for website hosting, forms, and booking functionality; Zoom for video conferencing; email and communications providers; website security providers; and analytics or other technology services used to operate and improve the website.

These providers may process information as necessary to provide their services and are subject to their own contractual obligations and privacy practices. When you interact directly with a third-party service, that provider's privacy policy and terms may also apply.

5. How We May Disclose Information

We may disclose information to service providers acting on our behalf; professional advisers such as attorneys, accountants, consultants, or auditors; government authorities or other parties when required by applicable law, legal process, or legitimate regulatory request; parties involved in protecting the security, integrity, rights, or property of XLNT EHR, our users, or others; or a successor organization in connection with a merger, acquisition, financing, restructuring, sale of assets, or similar business transaction.

XLNT EHR does not sell personal information for monetary consideration. Some privacy laws define "sale" or "sharing" more broadly; where applicable, we will provide legally required notices or choices regarding covered data practices.

6. Data Retention

We retain personal information only for as long as reasonably necessary for the purposes for which it was collected, to maintain legitimate business records, to comply with applicable legal obligations, and to resolve disputes or enforce agreements.

7. Information Security

XLNT EHR uses reasonable administrative, technical, and organizational safeguards intended to protect information from unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, misuse, or destruction. However, no website, electronic transmission, or information system can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

8. Your Privacy Rights and Choices

Depending on where you reside and which privacy laws apply, you may have rights concerning your personal information, including rights to request access, correction, deletion, or information concerning how your personal information is used or disclosed. You may also have rights concerning certain cookie, analytics, advertising, sale, or sharing practices where applicable.

To submit a privacy request, contact us at info@xlnteHR.com. We may need to verify your identity before fulfilling certain requests.

9. Children's Privacy

The XLNT EHR website is intended for healthcare organizations, professionals, business partners, investors, vendors, and other adults. It is not directed to children under 13, and we do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13 through this website.

10. External Links

Our website may contain links to third-party websites or services. XLNT EHR does not control the privacy, security, content, or practices of those third parties. Visitors should review the privacy policies of third-party services they choose to use.

11. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time as our website, services, technology, or legal obligations evolve. The updated policy will be posted on this page with a revised effective date.
